ing soldiers and their friends and ladies. It was near 7 o'clock before the programme was finished, and the selections were well rendered by the band. The "Prayer From Moses" and the "Stabat Mater" were the gems, and the instrumentation was deserving of credit. That these concerts are to be popular needs no comment, as the throngs of people who attend them is guarantee enough on that score. Permanently located near door of No. 1117 Penn. ave., contains to-day 12-inch Silk Mitts in black and colors for 13c a pair. See if you can duplicate them elsewhere under 20c.

Children's May Procession.

The annual May procession of the children of St. Peter's Church took place yesterday afternoon at 50 clock. The children were formed in line at the school hall on E street southeast and marched from there to the church, where, after verpers. Miss Mary Waltemeyer was crowned queen of May, Miss Regina Castell and Miss Gertrude Colman scting as maids of honor. There were about 690 children in the procession. After the service at the church a bountiful supply of ice cream and cake was served to the delighted young people at the school hall. It was the largest May procession ever witnessed in that parish. CLOSE INSPECTION

This is what we invite our customers to make. Our store is one of the lightest in the city, and buyers have every opportunity to examine our goods carefully. We don't expect to sell you unless we can make your money go further here than it will elsewhere. We don't mean than you can buy a suit of us for less money than you can elsewhere, for lots of dealers have lower-priced goods than we, and our trade demands fine goods, but we mean that, considering that our styles are the best and latest made, our workmanship first class, our materials and trimmings fine, our prices are correct.
